3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER

He said to them, "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the law of Moses and in the prophets and psalms must be fulfilled ... You are witnesses of these things." - Lk 24:44, 48

Dear Brothers,

I hope this finds you doing well. In January, I had the opportunity to address our presbyterate on the topic of vocations to the priesthood, and I want to take this moment to encourage each of you to do something for the upcoming World Day of Prayer for Vocations, which is Sunday, April 21. We need to call forth vocations from our people, which is part of shepherding them. I have included a simple analysis of how we're doing with priestly vocations, along with a few numbers. Please feel free to share it with your people.

Please preach on how God has called you to this priestly ministry. In addition, ask our people to be generous in praying for and supporting vocations to the priesthood, consecrated life and permanent diaconate. The Vocation Office will be hosting Mass and a Eucharistic Holy Hour for Vocations at Holy Name Cathedral on Friday, May 10, from 5:30 to 7 p.m., celebrated and led by Bishop Bartosic. Everyone is welcome to attend and pray with us.

Included in this mailing are a poster, a prayer card for our ordnandi, upcoming events, an evaluation of strengths and weaknesses of vocations in our archdiocese and a Quo Vadis poster. Please hang these up in your church and school, and remember the three steps for helping with vocations: prayer, invitation and mentoring. More resources are available at ChicagoPriest.com and on ArchLink such as bulletin inserts and prayers of the faithful.

Thank you for your priestly ministry and for your support of vocations.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Tim

LEGACY PLANNING | PLANOWANIE SPADKOWE

Every day, we have the opportunity to be the face of Jesus to others. You can help to support our parish and cover our increased operating costs by making a qualified charitable distribution ("QCD") gift from your individual retirement account. A QCD gift (a.k.a. IRA charitable rollover) allows individuals age 70½ or older to authorize their IRA administrator to make a direct transfer of funds from their IRA to qualified charities, tax-free. This way of giving does not generate taxable income, which may lower your annual income level. If you are age 73 or older, the amount you transfer may count towards your required minimum distribution. If you would like more information on how to make a QCD gift to Mary Undoer of Knots Parish, please contact Marguerite Q. Zappa, Planned Giving Officer, Archdiocese of Chicago at 312.848.3068 or mzappa@archchicago.org.

Każdego dnia mamy okazję być twarzą Jezusa dla innych. Możesz wesprzeć naszą parafię i pokryć nasze zwiększające się koszty operacyjne i rozważyć złożenie ofiary na rzecz organizacji charytatywnej (qualified charitable distribution - QCD) z konta emerytalnego. Darowizna QCD (znana również jako: IRA charitable rollover) pozwala osobom w wieku 70½ lat lub starszym upoważnić administratora konta IRA do bezpośredniego transferu funduszy z konta IRA do kwalifikowanych organizacji charytatywnych, bez płacenia podatku. Darowizna QCD nie jest wliczana do dochodu podlegającego opodatkowaniu, co może obniżyć roczny przychód podlegający opodatkowaniu. Jeśli ukończyli Państwo 73 lata lub są starsi, przekazana kwota może zostać zaliczona na poczet wymaganej minimalnej dystrybucji. Jeśli chcieliby Państwo uzyskać więcej informacji na temat składania darowizn QCD, prosimy o kontakt z Marguerite Q. Zappą, Specjalistką ds. planowanych darowizn, Archidiecezja Chicago pod numerem 312.848.3068 lub mzappa@archchicago.org.

ANGELS | ANIOŁY

Question: I've heard that we become angels when we die. Is this what the Church teaches?

Answer: As human beings, we are both spiritual and corporeal. We are body and soul. This makes us unique in all creation. No other physical creature — plant or animal — possesses an immortal soul made in God's image and likeness. Like the distinction with plants and animals, angels have an entirely different sort of existence. Angels are pure immortal spirit, and they have been so since the moment of their creation. While they may take on an appearance of a body in Biblical history, they are not a body like we are. Angels are neither male nor female, despite the art we often see.

As the result of the Fall, human beings experience death. Our souls are temporarily separated from our bodies. However, we do not become something other than human. Every Sunday in the Creed we profess "I believe in the resurrection of the body." As Jesus was united with his body on the third day, so too will we be united with our bodies at the end of time.

Pytanie: Słyszałem, że po śmierci stajemy się aniołami. Czy tak naucza Kościół?

Odpowiedź: Jako istoty ludzkie jesteśmy zarówno duchowi, jak i cieleśni. Jesteśmy ciałem i duszą. To czyni nas wyjątkowymi w całym stworzeniu. Żadne inne fizyczne stworzenie - roślina czy zwierzę - nie posiada nieśmiertelnej duszy stworzonej na obraz i podobieństwo Boga. Podobnie jak w przypadku roślin i zwierząt, aniołowie mają zupełnie inny rodzaj istnienia. Aniołowie są czystym, nieśmiertelnym duchem i są nim od momentu ich stworzenia. Chociaż w historii biblijnej mogą przybierać wygląd ciała, nie są ciałem takim jak my. Aniołowie nie są ani mężczyznami, ani kobietami, pomimo sztuki, którą często widzimy.

W wyniku Upadku istoty ludzkie doświadczają śmierci. Nasze dusze są tymczasowo oddzielone od naszych ciał. Nie stajemy się jednak kimś innym niż ludźmi. W każdą niedzielę w Credo wyznajemy "Wierzę w zmartwychwstanie ciała". Tak jak Jezus został zjednoczony ze swoim ciałem trzeciego dnia, tak i my zostaniemy zjednoczeni z naszymi ciałami na końcu czasów.

ON “WHAT DO WE HAVE TO EAT?”

© 2024 John B. Reynolds (jrwrites9@gmail.com)

When I was a kid, I was hungry all the time, and this has pretty much followed me around. I don't always give in to it, however, as I subscribe to something I heard or read once...that it's good to always be a little bit hungry. Which is not to say that I haven't pushed back from any given meal for having eaten too much. But seems I could never eat too much when I was small, and what I recall specifically is bursting into the house after playing outside and asking Mom, “What do we have to eat?”

She'd offer me this or that or any number of things, and oftentimes, I declined. For example, say, “Do you want yogurt and fruit cocktail?” Nah. “Do you want a peanut butter and jelly sandwich?” Nah. “Bologna?” Nah. “Left-over pork chops and rice?” Nah. Eventually, we both tired of the game, with Mom usually launching the first salvo: “Well, you must not be very hungry, then.” I'd mope around for a while before having one--and sometimes all--of my mother's offerings.

And another eating-related thing I remember from those long-ago days is Cracker Jack. Mom didn't treat me often with this. Plain yogurt and canned fruit cocktail was much more available to me. But when she served up Cracker Jack, I remember always liking the peanuts more than the candy-coated popcorn, and I remember always wondering if this was because there were so few peanuts compared to popcorn. It's funny how an 8-year-old thinks things through.

And of course, I remember the jingle. Not all of it, but most of it. I remember the main verse like it was yesterday: “Whadda you want/ When you gotta eat somethin'/ And it's gotta be sweet/ And it's gotta be a lot/ And you gotta have it now... Whadda you want?” And I remember the end of the rhyme the same: “Candy-coated popcorn, peanuts and a prize/ That's what you get in Cracker Jack.” Sadly, all of those “lip-smackin” inner rhymes are lost on me. Rap, ahead of its time.

But these Whadda want/Whadda have to eat questions surface today as I consider the Gospel, Luke's account of Jesus's post-Resurrection appearance to his disciples. Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John all have their own version, and each tells of Jesus commissioning his friends to go forth. But only Luke has one of my two favorite details in the entire Book. The first is John telling us, “And Jesus wept” outside of Lazarus's tomb. And today, it's Luke recording of Jesus asking his terrified friends (who think they are seeing a ghost), “Have you anything here to eat?”

I love this. Per the footnote in my book about these verses of Jesus showing the disciples his hands and feet and them asking for something to eat, “The apologetic purpose of this story is evident in the concern with the physical details and the report that Jesus ate food.” Because it's all very unghost-like, I guess. But Jesus's question runs deeper to me, the guy who grew up asking “What do we have to eat?” It speaks intensely to my ear of Jesus's human-ness (just like his weeping at a friend's tomb). And yet at the very same time, I have come to believe that this Jesus is the Christ, the Bread of Life come down from heaven. Which prompts me all the more to ask the question, and this time in a divine context: Hey, Jesus! Have you anything here to eat?
