MISSION STATEMENT: "Mary Undoer of Knots is a prayerful and welcoming Catholic family. We are committed to stewardship of our talents, time, and resources, to experiencing the living God, and to embracing the good news and our Catholic identity on our journey toward holiness. We seek guidance from Mary and our Lord to undo the knots before us and create a future rooted in tradition and vision reflecting our faith in action with and for one another."

MISJA PARAFII: "Parafia Maryi Rozwiązującej Węzły to modląca się i przyjazna rodzina katolicka. Jesteśmy zobowiązani do zarządzania naszymi talentami, czasem i zasobami, do doświadczania żywego Boga oraz do przyjmowania dobrej nowiny i naszej katolickiej tożsamości na naszej drodze do świętości. Szukamy przewodnictwa u Maryi i naszego Pana, aby rozwiązać węzły, które są przed nami i stworzyć przyszłość zakorzenioną w tradycji i wizji, odzwierciedlającej naszą wiarę w działaniu i dla siebie nawzajem"

GRADE SPOTLIGHT: MRS. KELLS'S SIXTH GRADE

Sixth grade is on the move right now! We have traveled along the Silk Road through India. Along the way, we learned about both Hinduism and Buddhism. Now, we are learning about Ancient Greece.

They are excited about the upcoming Greek and Roman God project.

Our Religion class has been focused on the three pillars of Lent: prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. Students are learning that fasting does not always mean giving up a favorite food; it can also mean changing a behavior. Students are being encouraged to be kinder to others and to help out more around the house without being asked. We created a class poster to remind us every day of our goals.

SPECIALS SPOTLIGHT: SEVENTH GRADE

Seventh graders have been working hard during the past few months. They have wrapped up the Science Fair here at school sending numerous students forward in the competition. Ellen Cipolletta and Samuel Ruffato were awarded Silver Medals at the regional science fair hosted by Northeastern Illinois University earlier this month. Rafael Den Arens, Trinidad Hernandez, Zoe Kerr, and Vivianna Pellegrino-Shores each received Gold Medals for their projects and will be going to the State Science Fair at Southern Illinois University late April.

The new year has brought more than academics. This year the school has emphasized service to the community. The student participated in creating Birthday Boxes that were donated to a local food pantry. Throughout the school specific items were brought in to donate. Seventh graders' contribution was birthday candles and plates. Together with items from other classes, and with the help of their prayer partners, the students assembled 75 birthday kits.

45TH ANNIVERSARY OF PRIESTHOOD

With gratitude to God, we joyfully celebrate the 45th Anniversary of Priesthood of
Fr. Frank Florczyk.

May the Lord continue to bless him with good health, strength, joy, and abundant graces for many more years of faithful service to God and His people.

God Bless You!

Z wdzięcznością Panu Bogu radośnie obchodzimy

Niech Dobry Bóg obdarza Jubilata zdrowiem, radością, pokojem serca oraz obfitością łask
na dalsze lata wiernej służby Bogu i ludziom.

Szczęść Boże!

FR. FRANK

By Matthew Matuszak

In unemployed, so I have a lot of time. And I like to go to church, so, the afternoon of Tuesday March 10, I started walking around and thinking "Oh, doesn't St. Coonstance Church have Eucharistic Adoration on Tuesday afternoons?" My son Luke goes there often after school. My parents graduated from St. Coonstance School in 1935 and then got married there in 1942.

Approaching the church, I saw a lady standing outside. She tried the door, but it was still locked. I didn't have a watch, and I didn't know when the church was supposed to open. I figured the lady is there because it's supposed to open soon. I myself tried all the doors. Locked. St. Coonstance was founded over 100 years ago as a parish for Polish immigrants. It is still a very active Polish parish. So, I figured the old lady probably doesn't speak English, and she probably feels bad that she doesn't speak English, so I didn't say anything to her, but I did gesture to the door.

If she had not been there, I probably would have just moved along. Instead, she and I waited a little, and someone unlocked the door. I don't know if she noticed, so I pointed to the door again. She went in, and I went in.

I was actually hoping maybe to go to confession, though I didn't know if it was scheduled. I had wanted to go for First Friday or First Saturday but, what with getting fired on Friday, it hadn't worked out. And, actually, I had accumulated more sins to confess. I walked to one side of the church. No one in that confessional. I walked to the other side of the church. No one in that confessional.

I like to look at holy images, so I went to the chapel, which has a nice image of Our Lady of Carmel. Then I looked at each of the 14 Stations of the Cross. Finally, one of the priests, Fr. Frank, stopped on his way to prepare for Eucharistic Adoration, and asked me "Can I do something for you?" This was my chance! "Could you maybe hear my confession?" "Yes, but after Benediction." [for something like that] "Ok, I'll wait," I said.

So I knelt at the pew and participated in the service. When it was finished, Fr. Frank saw me and motioned for me to go to a pew in the front, on the left. I was going to kneel, but he said that I could sit. "But don't talk too loud," he said.

"Bless me, Father, for I have sinned," I started. "It has been one month since my last confession. Father, I lost my job last Friday. I have been unpleasant with my wife, my sister-in-law, and my kids. These are my sins."

I don't remember too much of what he said. But he gave me a penance of praying the Litany to St. Joseph. He always gives me that penance. There's a very good Polish-language prayer book with many copies in the church. I picked one up. He said: "Do you know Polish?" I said, in broken Polish, "Tro-tych-tych." He said: "Do you have a smart phone? You can find it in English." I told him that I don't have a smart phone.

Then he was about to offer me money. He understood that I'm out of work, and he wanted to help. "I just lost my job last Friday," I said. "I'm ok." "Well, don't forget I'm here if you need something," he added.

I was impressed by his beautiful example of priestly ministry.

A beautiful witness of priestly ministry and compassion.

To prawdziwa historia spotkania z kapłanem, który okazuje miłosierdzie i troskę.
